

7th Grade Newsletter

May 13, 2016

Wow!!! I can't believe we are almost done with an entire year already. As we enter into our last week of school, we are still finishing up classes before we get to enjoy summer break. Students need to stay focused for just a couple more days. Next week has a lot of fun things happening. Thursday, we will go to the park and Friday we will have a hot dog cook out. Students will need to bring in a drink (no soda) for both of these days. Hopefully, the 7th grade students will be able to attend the 8th grade and/or the preschool graduation. Thank you to all of my parents who helped with the dance and the graduation reception. All of these events couldn't be done without your help.

Next week in class:

English: End of the year writing activities

Literature- Scope stories and activities

Science: Science World Activities

Social Studies: End of the year review

Math- "Welcome to the Real World Project"

Religion- Continue Decision Point
